About Us

Who We Are:

The Missouri Police Chiefs Charitable Foundation (MPCCF) is a not-for-profit 501c3 corporation formed in 1996 to provide assistance and service to citizens and law enforcement.

Our Mission:

Our mission is two-fold: To promote the safety of Missouri's youth through education programs and to advance the quality and professionalism of law enforcement by supporting higher standards and offering advanced officer training.

Team Work:

The MPCCF believes in teamwork and cooperative effort between Missouri businesses, citizens, and law enforcement. With your support, we can continue to provide the training and services that benefit all Missourians, especially our young people, and improve law enforcement standards throughout our state.

What we do

In the Community

Serve as the State DARE Training Center for Missouri

Provide training program materials aimed at preventing under age drinking.

For Law Enforcement

Provide a Missouri-based Law Enforcement Agency Certification Program

Develop advanced police supervisor training through our Command College Program

Administer basic and advanced School Resource Officer Training Programs
Provide assistance to the families of fallen officers

Award education scholarships

The MPCCF is recognized and licensed by the State of Missouri as an approved provider of law enforcement continuing education.
